TOPANGA CANYON BOULEVARD (STATE ROUTE 27) NEAR PACIFIC COAST HIGHWAY RE-OPENS

LOS ANGELES – The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) has cleared the mudslide that closed Topanga Canyon Boulevard (State Route 27) yesterday and the road is now open during specified hours.

While the damage from the previous storm is being repaired, Topanga Canyon Boulevard between Pacific Coast Highway and Grandview Drive is open to traffic only between the hours of 6 a.m. to 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. The boulevard currently is undergoing a $1.2 million repair involving construction of a 180-ft. long retaining wall and rebuilding the roadway. Completion is expected by early May.

Businesses are open during construction.
